Harvey's in Washington, Is Scene of Decidedly Unique Romance,

WASHINGTON, D. C., December 25.—
A unique courtship and marriage occurred last night, when E. M. R. Morrell, of Chicago, Ill., and Miss Hejen M. Ross, a Washington girl, were made man and wife by Rev, Richard P. Williams, rector of the Trinity Episcopal Church, at the rectory, No. 218 C Street, Northwest.

Mr. Morrell and Miss Ross spent the atternoon yesterday shopping and later went to Harvey's for dinner. Afterward Mr. Morrell seated himself at a plano in Harvey's and played a number of airs, while Miss Ross was seated nearby. Then he asked Norman Boisseau, head waiter at the place, to bring a head walter at the place, to bring a clergyman, as he wanted to be mar

Miss Ross acquiesced in the proprietor, was then into the confidence of the couple. After getting the telephone lines, busy, to here a lite in the head to marry the couple. The party went to his residence, where the knot was tied, to Harvey's, where a late supper was the couple of the coupl

TO ENTERTAIN FLEET

Extensive Preparations Already Under Way at Naples.

NAPLES, December 25.—Preparations are already under way for the reception in honor of the division of the American battleship fleet, now cruising around the world, on its arrival at this port, about January 17th. The division that has been designated to visit Naples, after the fleet separates in the Mediterranean, will be composed of the Wisconsin, the Illinois and the Kearsarge, under command of Rear-Admiral William P. Potter. The Italian Naval Department has arranged for the visiting warships to be anchored in the military harbor.

A special committee has been formed, headed by the mayor of this city, and is now planning a dinner to be tendered to the officers of the fleet, a gaia performance at the theatre of San Carlo, one of the largest theatres in Europe, and excursions to Pompeli, the Island of Capri, Sorrento and Mount Vesuvius.

During the ten-day visit of the sequadron the admiral and his start will go to Rome, where they will be received by King Victor Emmanuel and Vice-Admiral Mirabello, Ministor of Ilies.

SHOPLIFTER SWIPES BIBLE

Weman Caught in Act Calmiy Sits.
Down and Reads Book.
DES MOINES, IOWA, December 25.—
Caught by Officer Skinner in the act of secreting a Bible under her dress, an unknown woman at the Harris-Emery Company store became aware yesterday afternoon that she had been detected, and nonchainantly drew a chair to one side, seated herself, and, drawing the book from her dress, began to read.
She was not an instant too soon, for the officer was just on the point of placing his hand on her shoulder and informing her that she was under arrest.

Twins Ninety Years Old.

NEW YORK, December 25.—William and Samuel Muncey, twin brothers, llving at West Babylon, L. I., celebrated their ninetiath birthday on the old farm, where they were born on Christmas Day, 1818. Both are robust men, although an attack of rheumatism for the past few months has prevented Samuel following his avocation of fisherman, However, he expects to be lucked to the farm, which neither has left for any length of time since their birth. The brothers take an active interest in all that is going on, and their mental faculties are vigorous. They hold progressive ideas, but cling to the old-school forms on matters of honesty, religion and temperance.

In Association Meets and teconstitute of the Inner Dispatch.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

AS HEVILLE, N. C., December 25.—

As a result of a heated controversy, which threatened to disrupt the organization, the Ashevillo Har Association, at a called meeting Wednesday reconsidered the action tuken at its regular meeting last Monday, which directed that wines and other beverages should be provided for the annual banquat of the association, and not only passed a resolution providing that no wings or liquors should be provided, but probibit the members from providing their own wines or heverages for the occasion.

This action was taken, it is said, owing to comment since the publication of the intention to have wine and beverages for use at the banquet.

THUG HAD CODE OF HONOR

him with an oath, and a larce strugglus followed.

Deputy Sheriff Falatico approached.

The first thug, who was getting the worst of it, ran. The other held his ground.

"I may be a 'crook,' but I ain't 'stickin' up no peer old woman,' he volunteered. Then he explained to the deputy:

"Didn't know dat oder guy very well, but I kin see he ain't no good."

The thug with the code of honor was arrested, but later released upon his promise to leave town.
